It's Time to Vote!

The GSSI photo contest is our favorite time of the year because we get to see pictures of you using your GSSI equipment in the field. Last year we had over 160 photos submitted to the contest!

Hopefully you have already entered your photos, so now for the important part - voting for your favorite pictures! Only the top 10 pictures with the most votes make it to the semi-finalist pool and are considered eligible to win one of our amazing prizes.

We thought we'd take a minute to answer a few of your questions.

Can I vote for my own picture?

YES! You can vote for your photo(s) once per day. Vote for your own photos and vote for any other ones that catch your eye as well. Voting is quick, easy and ensures our top 10 finalists represent the pictures that you love.

Can my Nana vote for my picture?

YES! Tell your family, friends and colleagues to vote for your photo. We have some pretty awesome prizes this year so feel free to encourage people to vote. We can't guarantee they won't want to share the prize if you win though.

Can my dog vote for my picture?

Sorry, that one is a hard NO.

OK, I get it. So, how do I vote?

It's simple:

1. When you hover over a photo in the gallery, a heart will pop up in the lower, right corner.
2. Click the heart to open the photo.
3. Click the big orange button that says "VOTE FOR THIS PHOTO."
4. You need to be logged in to vote; if you are not, a lightbox will open after you click the VOTE button asking you to login or create an account.

How do I have my family and friends vote?

1. Share your photo!
2. Underneath the description of each photo there are icons to share your photo. The first button is a direct link to your photo and the other buttons are for sharing on social media.

How are the Winners determined?

The ten (10) photos with the most votes are deemed potential winners and considered our semi-finalists. Following the Contest Period, a panel of qualified judges will determine the Grand Prize winner, 2nd place winner and 3rd place winner.

- Public popular vote will account for 40% of the weighted score.
- Eligible photo submissions (see Official Contest Rules) will be presented to GSSI employees anonymously. Each employee will be eligible to cast their vote for their favorite three (3) images. Final tally of employee votes will account for 60% of the weighted score.

Just remember - voting is restricted to one (1) vote per person per entry per day. Voting activity is closely monitored and we reserve the right to disqualify any entrant we suspect of vote rigging or vote buying.

Don't Worry - There is still time to enter your photos!

The Photo Contest ends September 22, 2021.
